Bloom is more than lockers and textbooks, for education without application is nothing. What we are now accomplishing in these halls and classrooms has a great bearing on our later lives.

Youth's eternal duty lies in the betterment of the world. Thus Bloom's aim is to prepare us both culturally and vocationally for our proud place in the future.

To our servicemen . . . those who are at home and abroad, those who are wounded or listed as missing in action, those who give their lives for our freedom . . . to our strong and courageous youth, we dedicate this book.

As Bloom youth in uniform return to visit their alma mater, they find a cheerful welcome!

 UPPER RIGHT—Our principal and Capt. Richard Williams, who has flown on 35 bombing missions with the 8th Air Force.
 LOWER LEFT—Neal Hennegan, NAC, and Alfred Gierach, AAC, with students.
 LOWER RIGHT—"Be seeing you!" . . . Lieutenants Maurice Lien, 'Arkie' Myers and Edward Wilson.

"The foundation of every state is the education of its youth."
— Diogenès

FACULTY

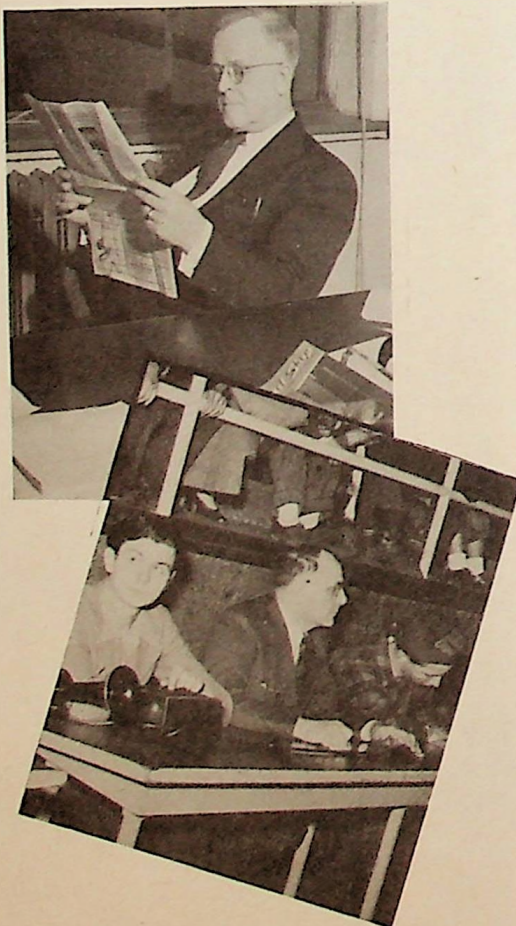

The teachers and faculty of Bloom lead us to better, fuller lives, that we, in turn, may be the leaders of a better, kinder world. In comradeship, guidance, and inspiration they mould us into builders of Tomorrow.

Democracy demands unselfish consideration for the rights, happiness, and well-being of others. Learning that emphasizes self-gain, individual advantage, and personal prestige will not become a constructive social influence. The learning processes must be vitalized by a positive out-reaching altruism . . . an "other-mindedness" in thought and action during the formative years.

Today's youth are the bearers of the nation's heritage as never before. They are the conveyors of knowledge, the artificers of ideals, the bulwarks of democracy. If service has become fundamental in their thinking and doing, they have attained that understanding which is true education.

The four years of service and loyalty given to Bloom by its graduates are but stepping-stones to what can be a productive future. May the members of the Class of 1945 ever strive to uphold and to practice these ideals!

R. J. Meade

Raymond D. Meade, able principal, controls the instruments guiding us to our future goals in life.

Sharing our principal's responsibilities and assisting in the administration of Bloom is Mr. W. P. Dyer, assistant principal.

DEAN OF GIRLS, ENGLISH A. B. A. M.

As deans of our school, Miss Ora Theobald and Mr. Charles Cassady are concerned mainly with problems which center about the social activities and the general welfare of the young men and women at Bloom. Their guidance in carrying out our social program has taught us to be "good neighbors" as well as "good citizens of tomorrow."

DEAN OF BOYS A. B.

LEFT TO RIGHT—R. D. Meade; Mrs. B. Nichols, secretary; Mrs. C. Klinger, president; Mrs. E. Jaracz, vice-president; Mrs. G. Soldano, treasurer.

These essential groups are conscientiously giving their time and efforts to the production of young American citizens prepared for their struggle in the world by the united strength of character and knowledge.

SCHOOL BOARD

Miss Hildur Soderman, registrar, has for many years capably managed the office staff.

Mr. Alfred Odegard, financial adviser and business manager, very ably presides over the bookstore.

As combined visiting nurse and truant officer, Mrs. Mina Malek lends many a helping hand as we struggle along the by-ways of life to adulthood.

BOOKSTORE ASSISTANT

We of Bloom salute Miss Ethel J. Alpenfels, anthropologist at the University of Chicago, who has pioneered in bringing a scientific understanding of "race" to the students of Bloom's Problems Classes. Attitude tests given students, who recently completed a short course taught by her, show a marked improvement in racial understanding. This improvement is reflected in better relations among Bloom students in their school activities.

CAFETERIA SERVICE R. C. B. S. M. A.

With Mrs. Catherine Puckett directing, our cafeteria staff has for an entire year prepared and served balanced, nourishing lunches to the hungry Bloomites who each day fill the cafeteria to capacity.

Working to keep our school beautiful and in good repair are the janitors. These men and women have done much to help us to be proud of Bloom and to them we are much indebted.

"Knowledge is a treasure, but practise is the key to it."

A session of the exclusive Senior class Problems of Democracy.

CLASS OF FORTY-FIVE

The end of our SENIOR year, which brings us to the close of our high school daze, is rather sad. This, our last year at Bloom, has been a busy one. Under our sponsor, Miss Applegate, we sold football pencils, candy, and pennants, and presented a movie in March. For girls, the Mother-Daughter Banquet with its united nations theme, will ever be a pleasant memory . . . and all of us will remember the hilarious class play, "Best Foot Forward," the glamorous Senior Dinner-Dance, and the Junior-Senior prom. So as we leave for the services, for war work, or for higher education, we take with us many fond thoughts of Bloom. After the lingering thrill of Class Day, Baccalaureate, and Graduation Night has passed, we, the Seniors, become full-fledged citizens of the world.

UNDERCLASS

Bloom offers an outstanding range of vocational courses to prepare its youth for a definite purpose in life. Underclassmen put their energy and ambition to practical use in making America strong industrially.

JUNIORS

SEATED—Edna Myer, James Weiler, Eleanor Malizia, Ronald Jessen.
 FIRST ROW—Rose Luzi, Jean Sedik, Clementine Calacci, Lois Olson, Charlotte Hervey.

The "Junior Day" assembly cast in action!

CLASS OF FORTY-SIX

Hi, JUNIORS! This is your year of sophistication (so they say!), but it was far from without other accomplishments! You bought the Joseph Compratt Memorial plaque in the library as a remembrance of an outstanding class leader. Yours also is the honor of establishing another class tradition, that of Junior Day, this year celebrated with an all-male assembly, "Wedding of the Nations." Besides the patriotic leis sold on this occasion, you benefitted your treasury selling football tags, candy, and blue-and-gold pencils. Not to stop there, the Junior Indian Pow-wow and Penny Social were red letter days on everybody's calendars. Will you ever forget Coach Nelson as presiding judge? The frosting on your cake . . . head cook, Miss Collins . . . was the prom at Lincolnshire country club. Make ready, Senior faculty . . . here come those ambitious Juniors!

SOPHOMORES

SECOND ROW—Bill Foley, Ted Poulos, Richard Glenn.

The gay decorations for the Sophomore Valentine Mixer receive a final touch.

CLASS OF FORTY-SEVEN

With all the pep and zeal of three dozen vitamin pills, you SOPHOMORES swung into a busy year! First you popped up with two weeks' candy selling and a noon-hour movie, "Kiss the Bride". In January you had everyone buying blue and white 'B' badges, and took the wartime challenge of fewer assemblies by getting up on yourselves. And remember those gay hearts and flowers worn at the Sophomore Valentine Mixer? For June Commencement you decorated the boys' gym and realized that another year is over for you, too! Yes, you've had a grand time of it! Miss Wilson, sponsor, led all your escapades, and we know you'll have many more with all that enthusiasm! So a toast to your present, plus one to your future!

CLASS OF FORTY-EIGHT

Hail, FRESHIES! It seems a long time from those first confusing days at Bloom, doesn't it? Now it's your turn this fall to play the old joke of finding the "elevator!" Regardless of the teasing, tho, your undaunted spirit made us sit up and take notice! No longer green, you've found many new interests and opportunities. Your Freshman Mixer was a great success as you took your rightful place in the social life of Bloom. The girls had a gala time at the October party held by the G.A.A. You've shown us that you really do things in a big way by your snappy campaigns and rousing election in March. Under the Freshman sponsor, Mr. Cassady, you're on your way . . . so hail! . . . to the biggest of all the classes may we wish a bright and shining Tomorrow!

— Goethe

ACTIVITIES

A worthy parallel to our national democracy is Bloom's student self-government. Co-operation, tolerance, and practise in the duties of citizenship become instilled early in the minds of these voters of Tomorrow.

SEATED—Gloria Pettigrew, Angelo Pancrazio, Marjorie Hartmann, Shirley Smith.
STANDING—Joan Englehardt, Don Spaulding, Shirley Stein, Roy Marshall.

COUNCIL OFFICERS

The Student Council officers are Mayor Angelo Pancrazio, Clerk Marjorie Hartmann, and Commissioners Engelhardt, Berolzheimer, Schmeckpeper, and Marshall.

The activities of the Student Council are many. The Department of Welfare sponsored several drives — Community and War Fund, Christmas Basket, Polio, and on all of these we went over last year's contributions. Hats off to the Department of Public Improvements; they assisted the Campus Corps, put up stairway signs, and set up a noon recreational program in the gym. The social activities of Bloom include many social hours and the annual Homecoming Dance. Thanks, Roy Marshall, Shirlee Stein, Christ Hrones, and Miss Lorraine Pearson!

The appointment of an Advisory Board was one of the outstanding features this year in Student Council. All in all the Student Council has been "on its toes."

SEATED—Gloria Pettigrew, Joan Englehardt, Angelo Pancrazio, Roy Marshall, Marjorie Hartmann.
STANDING—Miss Theobald, Miss Martin, Mr. Cassidy, Mr. Meade, Mrs. O'Connor, Miss Price, Mr. Odegard.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The purpose of the Student Council is to promote co-operation with the Board of Education and faculty, to provide for the common welfare, and to secure the highest possible good for the students and their successors.

The Executive Council consists of Mayor Angelo Pancrazio, Clerk Marjorie Hartmann, and their sponsor Mrs. Timothy O'Connor; Commissioner of Public Welfare Joan Engelhardt, and her sponsor, Miss Dorothy Martin; Commissioner of Finance Sara Mae Berolzheimer, and her sponsor, Mr. Alfred Odegard; Commissioner of Public Improvements Donald Schmeckpeper, and his sponsor, Mr. Charles Cassidy; Commissioner of Social Activities Roy Marshall, and his sponsor, Miss Ora Theobald; Miss Alice Price, the co-sponsor of the City of Bloom; and Principal Raymond D. Meade.

JUNIOR-SENIOR COUNCIL

Through the Student Council a better understanding is created between teachers and students. It makes its own laws and is responsible for their enforcement. The source of many constructive policies, such as the welfare work, the Student Council helps whenever it can.

With Mrs. Timothy O'Connor as sponsor, and the Mayor leading discussions, many problems are solved.

FIRST ROW—Cleo Roush, Patricia Nagle, Eleanor Horecny, Jennie Novelli, Dorothy Baker, Joyce Meade, Catherine Hack.

The Student Council is composed of representatives chosen from the classes of Bloom. A councilman is elected each semester in every home room and is eligible for re-election if he keeps an average of C. The regular meetings are held on Thursday afternoons. The councilmen bring up and discuss questions on school matters. Any council member may propose an ordinance, but it must be passed by a majority vote.

FIRST ROW—Richard Gawenis, Elaine Cameli, Flora Paoletti, Aldona Mitchell, Frances Malizia, William Schramm, Robert Tintari.

THIRD ROW—Ruth Fozzini, Therse Pytel, Jacqueline Lassers, Dorothy Mayhew, Walter Mayer, Benny Calacci.

FOURTH ROW—Ted Paulas, Nick Reno, John Cimini, Arthur Ahrendt, James Sims, Sam Merli, Richard Chenot.

BROADCASTER STAFF

With Jim Kane as editor, and Henry Wise and Elaine Rietz as associate editors, the BROADCASTER is published bi-weekly except during vacation and exam periods. The Bloom paper, under the supervision of Miss Mary Elizabeth House, varies from four to six pages, plus a monthly high school roto supplement. Members are largely from journalism classes, but the staff includes other students who show interest and ability.

The paper belongs to National, state, and Chicago area publication groups and has won several first place awards from critical services.

ANNUAL STAFF

SEATED—Bill Foley, Ken Turner, Bob Nordberg, Bob Wald, Jackie Price—Editor, Marilyn McEldowney, Jean Reid.

STANDING—Nick LoBue, Bob Crumb, Shirley Smith, Ted McElwee, Don Spaulding, Miss House, Victoria Meskauskas, Sara Mae Beralzheimer, June Rudin, Pat McLaughlin.

It has been our privilege to have such able leaders as Miss Mary Elizabeth House, our sponsor; and Jackie Price, our editor-in-chief, for this yearbook. Hectic days were frequent when deadlines were to be met. The various sections probably would have never been completed if it were not for the constant, reassuring pressure put on us by our sponsor and editor.

Division-pages, candid, write-ups, club pictures, and what have you were very bothersome for us to contend with. We were sweating blood to meet those ever present deadlines.

We hope that future annual staffs will have the same fine cooperation from the school as we have encountered.

QUILL AND SCROLL

The Quill and Scroll is an international honorary society for high school journalists. Students active in publication work, on the BLOOM or BROADCASTER, are recommended by the sponsor, Miss Mary Elizabeth House, and passed through the Executive Secretary, Edward Nell. Headquarters for the society are located on the downtown campus of Northwestern University.

Qualifications for membership include outstanding work on publications and a high general scholastic average.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

This chapter of The National Honor Society proves its worth in many ways. The group, with the help of Miss Viola Herr, conducted a social hour in honor of all Bloomites who made semester honors, and an initiation banquet for the new members. They managed the all-school honors assembly, helped in averaging the grade distribution records, and sent Christmas boxes and cards to the members of the society now in the armed services.

FIRST ROW—Marilyn Bloom, Jacqueline Price, Marilyn McEldowney, Shirley Nay, Patricia Nagle, Nelda Craig, Colleen Austgen, Saramae Beralzheimer, Elaine Multag.
SECOND ROW—Edward Thuman, Joan Anderson, Marilyn Morgan, Frances Mayer, Bernice Umland, Eleanor Keuch, Barbara Puckett, Blythe McCradie, Shirley Smith.

NATIONAL THESPIANS

Thespians? A club? No, not exactly, for it belongs to a national and world-wide honorary organization. Only a few are members of Troupe 184, as the qualifications require constancy and ability.

Although not organized until the second semester, when Miss Mary Louise Stelter sponsored the group, the members feel that this is one of the best years in Thespian history.

SEATED—Shirley Stein, Shirley Smith, Pat McLaughlin, Kenneth Turner, Bob Wald, Frances Mayer, Bob Nordberg, June Schmeckpeper.

STANDING—Ted McElwee, James Kane, Blythe McCraddie, King Williams, Carol Showalter, Miss Mary Lou Stelter, Henry Wise, Dorothy Wein, Carol Vanderwalker, Pat Nagel.

LIBRARY GIRLS

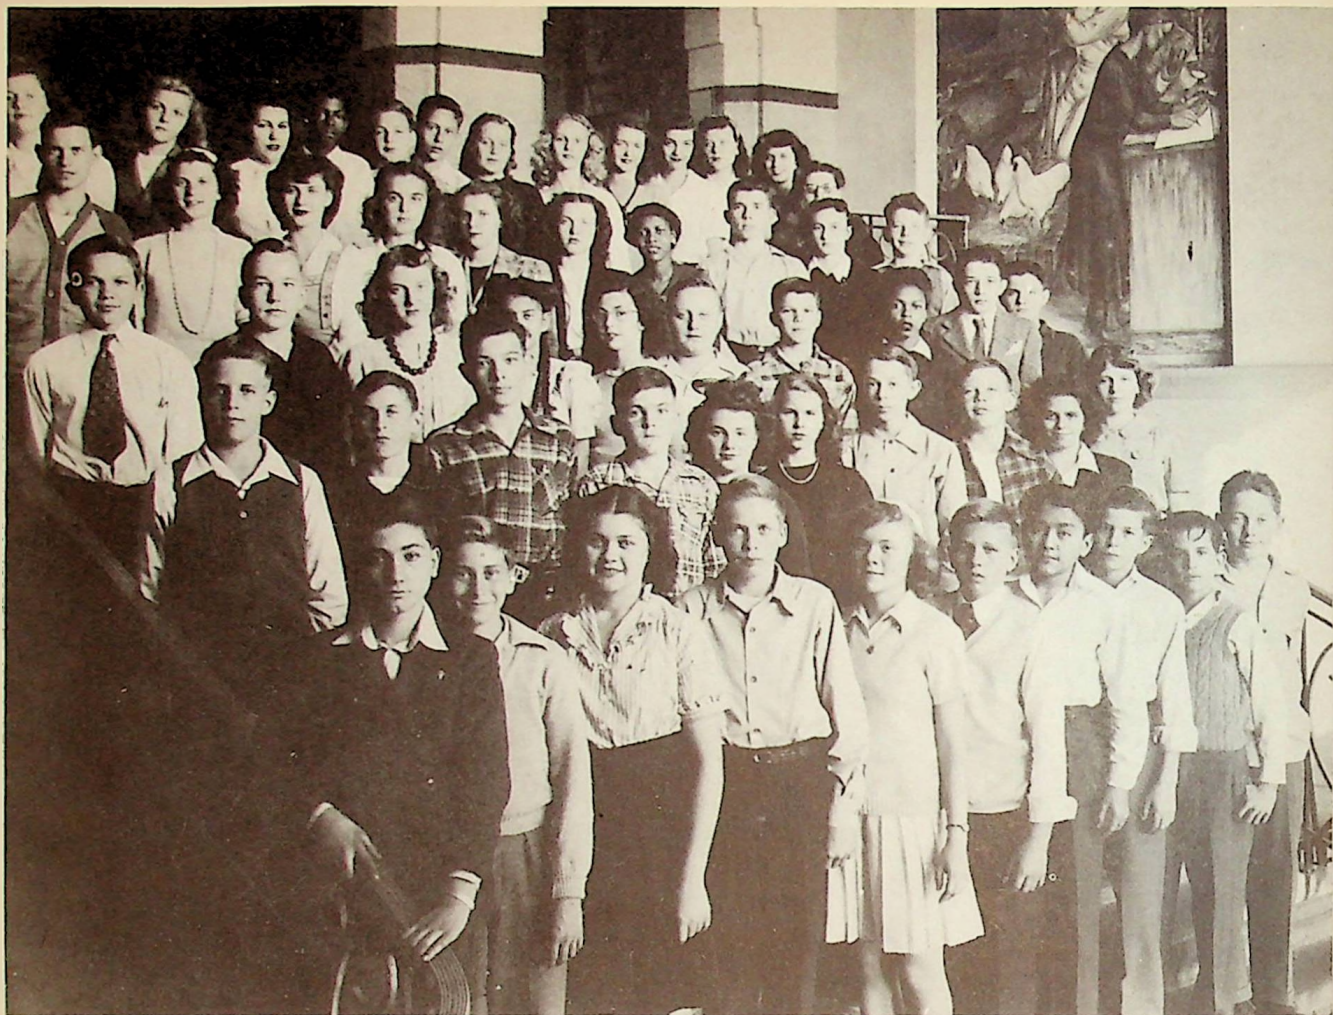

FIRST ROW—Vera Triba, Vernelle Saunders, Marilyn Gansen, Marilyn Morgan, Barbara Puckett, June Schmeckpepper, Dorothy Ruszel, Dolores Klyczek, Marie Iaffolo, Mary Elizabeth Lloyd.

SECOND ROW—Miss Hess, June Marie Mazonas, Elaine Multag, Donna McLean, Josephine Picot, Viola DeBoer, Gladys Brindle, Mildred Wattier, Odea Petrelli, Eleanor Keuch, Mrs. Buchtel, Avis Scogin, Shirley Nay.

THIRD ROW—Clara Rekau, Wilma Lange, Leona Fredericks, Blythe McCradie, Jean Reid, Clea Roush, Marjorie Hartmann, Bernice Kampe.

The girls of the Library Club charge out books at the beginning of each period, file cards, set out periodic pamphlets and magazines, and check in new books. The members earn one-fourth of an academic credit per semester. The library girl is neat, courteous, alert, and willing . . . and those of B.T.H.S. are that to the 'Nth degree!

 THIRD ROW—Stanley Budzik, William Messmaker, Jacqueline McInrue, Josephine Accencio, Joan Gladstone, Francis Mikuta, Tom Cleator, Davis Washington, Fred Wietersen, Leonard Skonecke.
 FOURTH ROW—Louis Patrick, Geraldine Carrara, Elaine Long, Mable Little, Barbara Allgood, Barbara Buchtel, Minnie Austin, William Donnally, Jean Ann Manske, John Freeman.
 FIFTH ROW—Jacqueline Hellriegel, Alice Cooney, Yvonne Stolte, Marvin Gavin, Herbert Dalowy, Vincent Gustafson, Roberta Kentish, Jane Larson, Dorothy Mayhew, Jacqueline Lassers, Irene Staszkus, Dorothy Safran, Miss Strauss.

BEGINNING LATIN CLUB

The Beginning Latin Club, composed of first year Latin students, meets every Monday. The purpose of the club, called "Roma Parwa", is to familiarize the members with ancient Roman life and introduce the things which they learn into Latin classes.

Some lively parties were held jointly for Latin and Spanish Clubs. At these parties the members gave Roman plays and political speeches, all conducted in the old Roman style.

The club operates under a constitution which governs the activities. This constitution, one of the year's many accomplishments, was written by a committee whose chairman was Doris Washington.

FIRST ROW—Helen Kuerston, Avis Jaracz, Margaret Stanley, Jay Patz, Dara Garnett, Flora Jean McKee, Lowell Hinze, Sidney Hills.

SECOND ROW—Barbara Gierach, Doris Wittel, Laverne Swets, George Parenti, Richard Glenn, Marian Leinen, Slatilde Sakalowski, Maurice Ferrea.

THIRD ROW—Maralyne Pennington, Patricia Opie, Marilyn Barrett, Clara Rice, Marjorie Wikstrom, Mary Bruni, Ronald Jessen—Consul, Carolyn Dierson, June Schmeckpepper, Robert Fitzner—Scriba.

FOURTH ROW—Lorraine Vaelker, Odea Petrelli, Virginia Hook, William Woodhull, Donna Hillborn, Nancy Ballentine, Barbara George, Margaret Showalter, Judith Taubes.

ADVANCED LATIN CLUB

Under the supervision of Miss Viola Herr, the Latin Club follows a Roman plan of government. These "Romani Hodierni" held an election a 'la Rome at the time of the November national election. They played host to the Beginning Latin and Spanish clubs at a special Christmas party. The second semester was high-lighted by the annual Roman banquet to which all members of the six Latin classes were invited.

PAN-AMERICAN LEAGUE

FIRST ROW—Mary Lou Sjöholm, Helen Mayhew, Dolores Duensing, Dorothy Twietmeyer, Elaine Hranes, Shirley Nay—Secretary, Charles Waddington—Vice-president, Victor Zaverella—Treasurer, Jack McEldowney—President.

SECOND ROW—Evelyn Sebastian, Marilyn Scogin, Carol Pause, Jean Sedik, Marie Ray, Joyce Meade, Josie Cornet, Margaret Darden, Don Hamilton.

THIRD ROW—David Yentzer, Patricia Nagle, Shirley Koch, Lola Young, Lorraine Long, Joan Schulze, Doris Cromley, Clarence Bernard, Bernadine Wantuck.

FOURTH ROW—Nina Kappmeyer, John Lindholm, Elmer Bernard, Bill Bahlman, Art Ahrendt, Art Galhel, Nedo Uliassi, Miss Strauss.

This organization was formerly known as the Spanish Club. In the early part of the year the group joined the Pan-American League, and thus won its official title. Miss Harriet Strauss leads the Bloom League's members in their bi-weekly meetings. In November they entertained members of the South Shore High School Spanish Club with a program of singing, dancing, and short skits. The club also had a treasure hunt, presented a group of plays, arranged a Christmas display, and held group singing in Spanish.

DEBATE CLUB

SEATED—Patricia McLaughlin—Secretary, Lorraine Volker.

STANDING—Mr. Cooper, Elwood Willey—Vice-president, Henry Wise, Donna Pankonien, Norman Dollinger, Maurice Ferrao, Barbara Puckett, Marie Marnan—Treasurer, Ted McElwee—President.

"Mr. Chairman," . . . "Worthy opponents," . . . "Ladies and Gentlemen," . . . are phrases that welcome you to Mr. David Cooper's room on Monday nights. The chief purpose of the Debate Club is to familiarize the members with formal debating. Many others have been held, several of them with teams of other high schools. The main subject this year was: "Should the Legal Voting Age Be Reduced To Eighteen Years?"

N.D.C.

"What should be done with the old Bloom building?" . . . "Should national government control transportation?" . . . "What is the history generations of today are making?" Questions of politics and policies are discussed in the newly-organized N.D.C. guided by Miss Faye Wilkinson. Members of the club, taking advantage of available literature on their topics of argument, conduct the meetings.

It is hoped that the principles and aims of the N.D.C. will inspire Bloom students to higher ideals of citizenship and to deeper reverence for our governmental institutions.

FIRST ROW—Irene Zwier, LaVerne Swets, Vivian Anderson.
SECOND ROW—Martha Saccutelli, Joyce Brewer, Arlene Kahler, Marie Ray.
THIRD ROW—Lucille Paradise, Ruth Howerdine, Mildred Koester—president, Vivian Sans, Donald Bloesh.
FOURTH ROW—Miss Wilkinson, Victor Zavarella, Keith McKee, Robert Thornburg, Robert Wald, Robert Nordberg.

MOVIE OPERATORS

Mr. Briggs, Ed Thuman, Elaine Jahns, Bob Forrest, Harold Kehl, Don Cook, Charles Marthaler, Dorothy Tweitmeyer, Don Wolfe, Jean Peters, Robert Craig, Bob Seelbach, Walter Allgood.

With the flashing of figures on the screen and the clicking of projector reels, the Projector's Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Briggs, assisted by Ed Thuman and Bob Forrest, provided a new type of education for Bloom students. The members of this service organization shows movies during their free hours, at noon, and after school.

The beginners are taught how to operate projectors, and the experienced members obtain advanced training in the fields of light, sound, and projection.

SEATED—Elaine Schmidt, Delyn Eaken, Robert Nordberg, Mary Lou Sjaholm—Treasurer, Jaan Schoenberger.
 FIRST ROW—Elsie Mae Hunt, Jean Patton, June Rudin, Berith Eklund, Bob Wald, Dorothy Stein, Eleanor Stein, Pat Walters, Bill Foley—President, Mr. Fast.
 SECOND ROW—Walter Platenka, Henry Duensing, Bob Fitzner, Jeanette Guzzino, Sidney Bloom, Alex Novak, Shirley Schmidt, Raymond Collins.
 THIRD ROW—John Fremouw, Dick Gawenis, James Kane, Robert Crum.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

Click! . . . Flash . . . "Hold that pose" . . . "Watch the birdie!" These are familiar phrases throughout the halls of Bloom. The Photography Club is under the leadership of Mr. Menno Fast. Besides learning to develop and print pictures, they attend movies and lectures. The Club meets in halves on Mondays and Tuesdays because of the large number of members. Topping off the year was a social with dancing, entertainment, and refreshments.

FIRST ROW—Bill Liesenfelt, Don Spaulding, Frank Kasper.
SECOND ROW—Bill Whitney, Don Hamilton, Bob Van Buskirk, Bill Woodhull, Bob Fitzner.

AMPLIFIER OPERATORS

"Feedback," "feedback" — that's the motto of the amplifier crew. Come what may, the boys are always ready to operate their equipment for all occasions. Under the management of Don Spaulding, the assistants ran the sound equipment for assemblies, dances, socials, homeroom announcements, and various other activities. They have been fortunate in securing a new permanent amplifier, and a microphone stand, used in the gym.

The operators are able to send various educational programs to any classroom in the school. These programs consists of a radio broadcast, recorded music, or a combination of both.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

FIRST ROW—Miss Penn, Velma Granno, Selma Shiff—Secretary-Treasurer, Theresa Dionne, Phyllis Mongillo, Betty Frabasen, Beatrice Wattier, Alice Zarlengo, Josie Valtatoni.
SECOND ROW—Angeline April, Joan Anderson, Caryl Kamstra, Mildred Wattier, Dorothy Schweer, Minnie Sassano, Lenora Kamstra, Gertrude Mulder—Vice-president, Anna Marie Hoisington.
THIRD ROW—Livia Vagnoni, Virginia Weishaar, Jane Miller, Ruby George, Dorothy Kelleher, Leona Vander Woude, Betty Hank, Joyce Howe.

The Home Ec. Club is sponsored by Miss Loretta Penn. The Ag. department invited the girls to a Hallowe'en party and on February 13 a Valentine Party was given in return. During semester exams, a theater party was attended by almost every club member. The club sold candy, gave faculty teas, and sponsored Bow Day . . . green for Freshies, orange for Sophs, red for Juniors, and blue for the mighty Seniors.

F.F.A.

The F.F.A. under Mr. E. E. Mayhew, meets in the evenings and at noon. The business of the day is taken care of—then entertainment and refreshments are provided! The Club was host to the Home Ec. Club at several evening parties. This year's projects include the raising of 300 broilers and 100 capons which were dressed and sold to the faculty at approximate cost. The boys constructed four half-ton self-feeders for hogs, two sixteen-foot ladders, a two-hundred-bird poultry battery, and numerous saw-horses.

AUDUBON CLUB

The Audubon Club, under the sponsorship of Miss Altha Haviland, is one of Bloom's oldest clubs. This year the members went on an excursion to the Brookfield Zoo to study birds, using the information acquired in the annual "Audubonite" for 1945. Bird feeding stations were made for the birds during the winter. The club also studies various birds while they are here on their seasonal visits.

FIRST ROW—Doris Wittel, Betty Frobasen, Ann Krizan—treasurer.
SECOND ROW—Helen Kuerston, Dorothy Baker, Marie Ray, Rose Mary Bellow.
THIRD ROW—Joy Patz—secretary, Betty Williams, Bernadine Wantuck.
FOURTH ROW—Vallie Davis, Arlene Heusman, Donna Pankonien—vice-president, Miss Haviland.

KNITTING CLUB

Miss Dorothy Martin, the leader of these knitting girls, teaches fundamentals to many, and gives others advanced instruction. Club periods fly by as clicking needles and brightly-colored balls of yarn emerge into useful articles, caps, scarfs, and mittens for the members and their friends.

NEXT TO RAILING—Theresa Bury, Bernice Matusiak, Doris Cepek, Helen Anderson, Edna Meyers, Alice Vaytina, Betty Cepak, Agnes Nowicki, Cletilde Sokolowski, Florence Kremen, Dorothy Ratkowski, Doris Mae Bao, Geraldine Mazonas, Grace Voights, Marilyn Harms, Gertrude Jarecki, Elizabeth Nowak.
SECOND ROW—Miss Martin, Myra Stuenkel, Mildred Heideman, Joan Moses.

SERVICE BUREAU

"Gosh, I lost my fountain pen. I hope it isn't gone for good! I think I'll look at the Service Bureau."

Far from being unfamiliar with these words, every Bloom student has said it at least once during his four years.

Pens, purses, combs, handkerchiefs, pencils, wallets, and such, make up the long list of lost articles. The Service Bureau attendants leave class a few minutes before the period ends and stay there during the five-minute intermission. In addition, the Service Bureau is open in the morning before homeroom and after school.

STANDING—Pauline Kolnik, Arlene Kahler, Helen Carducci, Doris Klingler, Gloria Bianconi, Carol Shewalter, Imogene Layman, Helen Rotondi, Mary Pisterzi, Lorraine Martin.
SEATED—Helen Ricchuito.

HOSTESSES

The hostesses are commended for their fine work in 1944-45. They were faithful in welcoming visitors and guests and in directing them to the proper office. Miss Ora Theobald carried through a fine job in keeping this organization running smoothly.

HALL GUIDES

SECOND ROW—Bernice Matusiak, Ann Sakalares, Jean Tiberi, June Bloom, Sarah Pagoria, Antoinette Fazzini, Mary Lou Sjaholm, Theresa Clark, Bernice Dionne, Jeanette Kasprzak, Mary Spitzenberger.

THIRD ROW—Ernestine Wilkening, Lorraine Nietfeldt, Mildred Sabo, Joan Schoenberger, Ella Mae Jung, Frances Seiter, Marie Showley, Marilyn Martin, Arlene Keene, Donna Rhodes, Marilyn Brass.

FOURTH ROW—Violet Santostefano, Jessie Stelter, Elvera Jacobucci, June Malvestuta, Dorothy Domith, Virginia Gyger, Helen Green, Frances Mayer, Evelyn Sebastian, Lois Olson.

FIFTH ROW—Anthony Brassea, Louis Mascitti, Roy Atwood, Helen Strong, Gloria Green, Shirlee Stein, Dan Boughton, Ralph Donelly, Joseph Killar, Dolores Gardiner, Alex Novak.

SIXTH ROW—Walter Mayer, Mr. Cassidy, Richard Harms, Chester Consorti, Charles Ohlinger, Paul Borwig, Henry Duensing, Roland Russell, Frank Prist.

"Hey, you!" yells a Bloom sentry, "Where is your pass?" Hall Guides, supervised by Mr. Cassady are stationed in the halls during each class hour. Lieutenants visit the many guard posts on the three floors and see that "all is well."

It is their duty to protect school property, check on wandering students, and show special courtesy to all visitors who enter our building.

TRAFFIC GUIDES

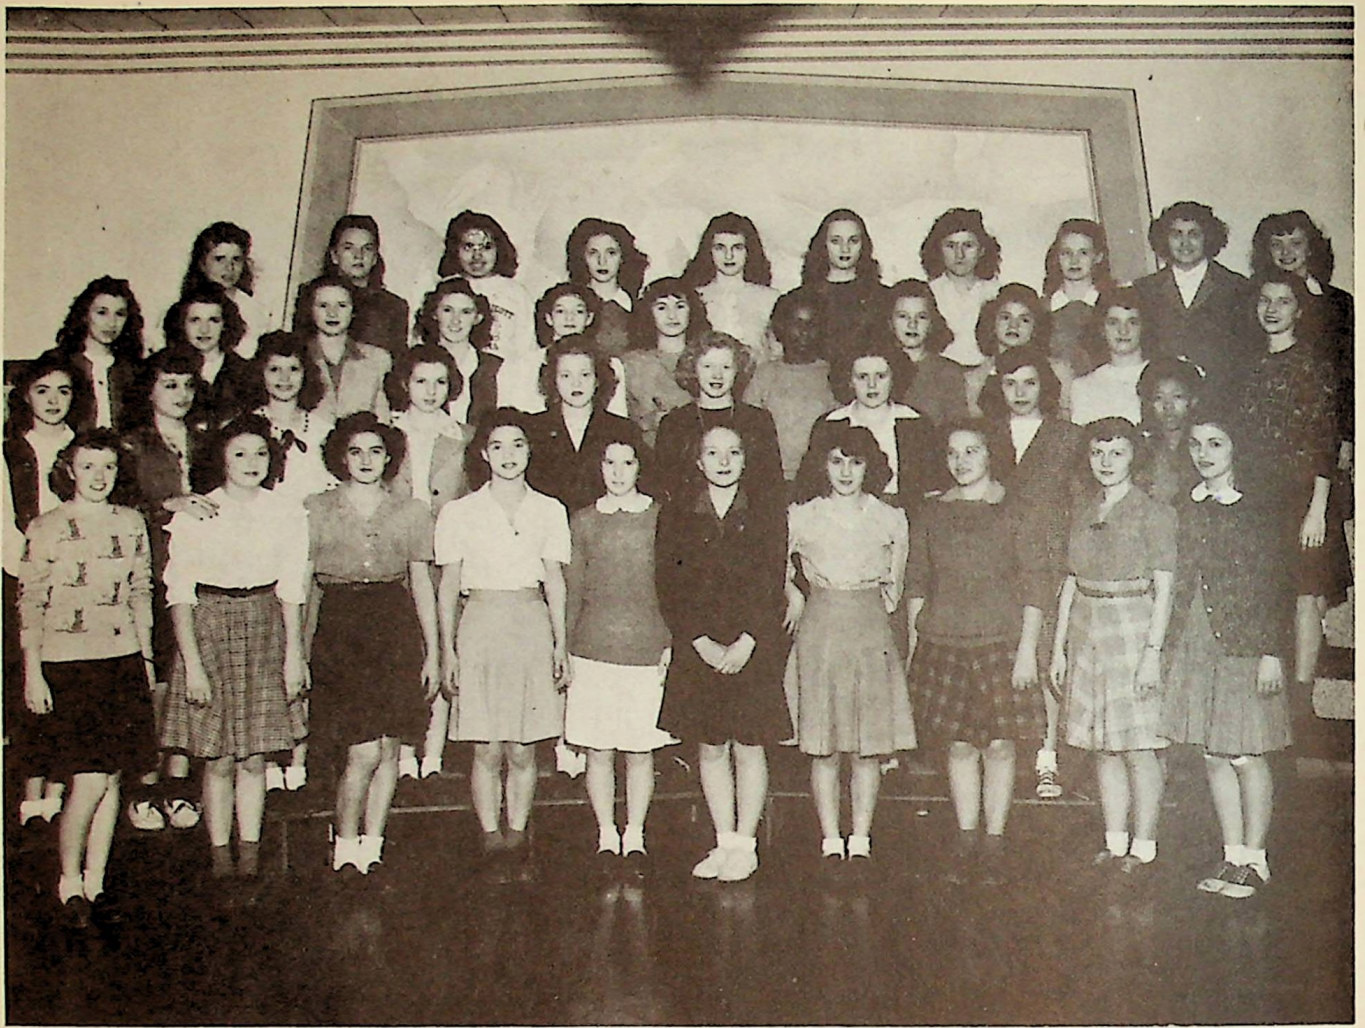

Leaving their classes two minutes before each period is ended, the Traffic Guides go to their posts to take charge of hall traffic in overcrowded Bloom. Under the guidance of Henry Duensing, 'UP' and 'DOWN' signs were placed above all stairways. Typical Traffic Guide remarks are: "This is an up stairway!" . . . "Not soooo fast!" . . . and "Go around, buddy!"

FIRST ROW—Norman Borgardt, Gene Noel, Don Schmeckpepper, Dan Moore, Bob Schmeckpepper, Percy Williams.

THIRD ROW—Duane Schmidt, Anthony Brassea, Mr. Cassady, Henry Duensing, Jethro Hills, Lewis Brandon.

FIRST ROW—Sue Schinke, Irene Romandine, Jean Pisterzi, Gilda D'Antonoli, Flora Jean McKee, Joy Patz, Thelma Renzetti, Ann Krizan, Vernelle Sanders.
SECOND ROW—Joyce Meade, Jackie Costabile, Doris Wittel, Betty Williams, Anna Haisington, Joyce Marie Howe, Corinne DeVoe, Frine Marzano, Dara Garnett.
THIRD ROW—Violet Santostefano, Jessie Stelter, Jean Sedik, June Malvestuto, Katharyn Spina, Lola Santostefano, Vadie Henderson, Rose Christofanelli, Mary Zomparelli, Elsie Nardoni, Dorothy Ruszel.
FOURTH ROW—Francis Seiter, Marjorie Shepard, Carmen Mele, Sally Spatora, Irene Simonetti, Mary Bruni, Elvera Jacobucci, Eleanor Skonecke, Margretta Barilow, June Schmeckpepper.

B. C. P.

The members of the B. C. P. volunteered to help keep the corridors free from waste paper and assisted in cleaning the cafeteria and gym at noon. The girls sponsored noon movies and sold candy to raise money to buy good-looking B. C. P. badges. This club, under the supervision of Miss Alice Price, is to be commended for its excellent work in keeping Bloom one of the state's neatest schools.

FIRST ROW—Paul Santilli—Lieutenant, Elmer Narcissi, Victor Muzzo, John Onofrio—Chief, Angelo Gabriel.

CAMPUS CORPS

The campus is kept clean and attractive by the faithful and unrelenting work of the Campus Corps. The sponsor, Mr. Charles Cassidy, and Chief, Tony "I'll Knock 'Em Out" Ballassone, together with the volunteers, did a noteworthy job.

Tony left for the service after the first semester and John Onofrio took over the corps and followed in Tony's footsteps.

FIRST ROW—Norma Troli, Clara Corradetti, Joy Patz, Lillian Damiani, Lorraine Harrington, Betty Schofield, Irene Romandine, Jean Cannon, Dorothy Tate.

SECOND ROW—Elaine Johns, Mary Jane Crabtree, Phyllis Piazza, Lillian Young, Maureen George, Esther Krauc, Lorraine Spina, Jeanette Kasprzak, Francis D'Amico, Sarah Pagoria.

THIRD ROW—Yolanda Montella, Irene Simonetti, Sharon Zarth, Jacqueline McInrue, Joan Moses, June Malvestuto, LeNora Kamstra, Elaine Seelbach.

FOURTH ROW—Elaine Schmitt, Wilma Baker, Betty Haake, Beatrice Wilkens, Lorraine Wajick, Virginia Iannucci, Wanda Pendrak, Sylvia Folta.

GIRLS LEAGUE

The Girls League started the year with a bang by sponsoring the Freshman party. The girls' gym was turned into a college dormitory for one afternoon, and the campus queens sported the newest costumes in a Fashion Parade for the honored guests.

The Christmas season brought with it a Christmas Kids' Party for all the girls in school. "The Night Before Christmas" was read under the Christmas tree that the League had decorated in the main hall.

The most important event sponsored by the League was the annual Senior Mother-Daughter Banquet in February.

GIRLS LEAGUE OFFICERS

SEATED—Bernice Umland, Margaret Showalter, Marilyn Bloom, Dorothy Baker.
STANDING—Rose Luzi, Barbara George, Miss Veazey, Miss Nagel, Gladys Brindle, Barbara Buchtel.

G. A. A. BOARD

FIRST ROW—L. Russo, M. Christo, I. Tate, D. Stein, M. Saldana, M. Austin, E. Damiani, J. Tribo, B. Kapyto, R. Laya, M. Bloom, D. Baker, D. Ursitti, E. Gravelot, J. McLaughlin, E. Amadio, G. Voights, R. Christo fanelli, J. Pisterzi, I. Layman.

SECOND ROW—T. Massetti, M. Saccutelli, D. Tweitmeyer, B. Buchtel, E. Lange, J. Cararra, C. Corradetti, A. Sylvester, T. Pytel, V. Simone, H. Strang, M. Showalter, J. Buccino, M. Shutts, S. Anderson, J. Bruns, M. J. Moore, L. Spina, L. Saia, B. Schaeffeld, S. Schweer.

THIRD ROW—I. Kelleher, L. Santostefano, H. Hills, B. George, A. Russo, D. Nichols, J. Zazac, L. Long, M. Bross, M. Biesborer, C. Mele, I. Cialkowski, G. Brindle, C. Peterson, V. Gifford, B. Umland, E. Stein, S. Pagoria, P. Wasik, L. VandeWaude.

G. A. A.

As in past years, the activities of the G.A.A., under the sponsorship of Miss Veazey, have been many and varied. The legislative part of this organization is carried out as follows: the board consists of nine members, which include the four officers, a representative from each class, and a BROADCASTER representative. Meetings were held bi-monthly. At the Play Day this year, 100 guests came from five other high schools. Cooperating with the Girls' League, the G.A.A. had a large part in the very successful Freshman Party. A volleyball party was held after school in both gyms at which the girls played volleyball and were served refreshments. Archery, badminton, and basketball were offered as after school recreation for all girls who were interested. The annual Spring Party was a very gala occasion, at which the Girls' League members were guests.

FIRST ROW—Angelo Pace, Clyde Davis, Fred Falta, George Scampini, George Sheeby, Peter Camelli, Donald Jahns, Paul Christofanelli.
THIRD ROW—Herman Santucci, Leroy Cohen, Mark Fisk, Sam DiGiovani, James Bruno—Treasurer, Nick LaBue, Guido Fiacco, Coach Nelson.
FOURTH ROW—Bill Rush, Benny Delehoy, Jack Pheanis, James Blakemore, Frank Schrohe, Roger Peterson—President, Bob Scheid, Jetho Hills.

MANAGERS CLUB

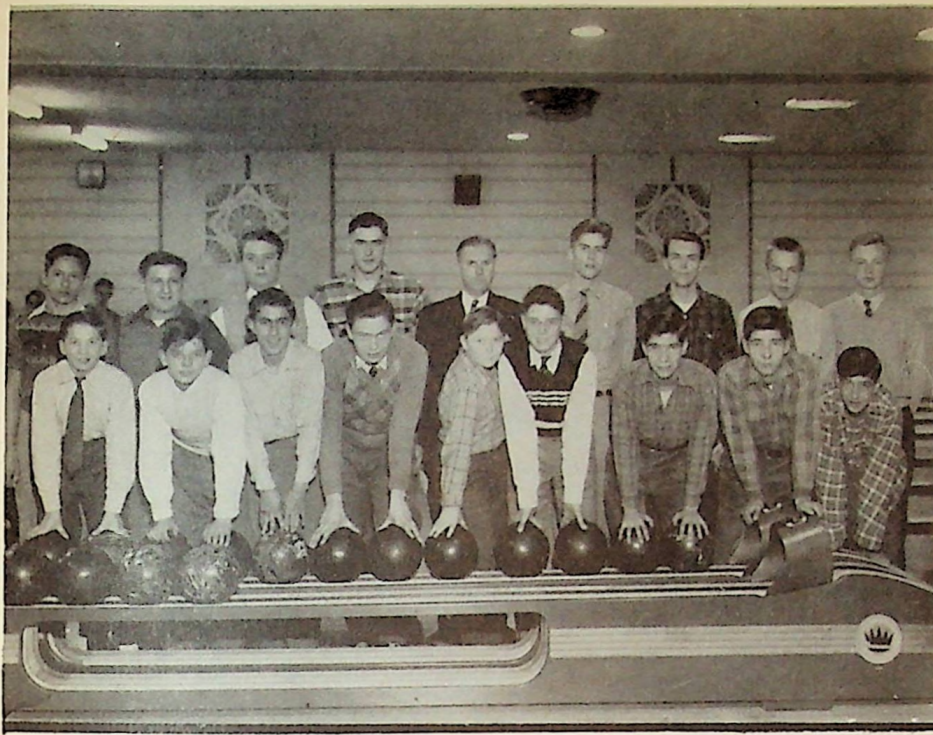

Under "Uncle Elmer" Nelson's leadership, the Managers Club was organized in 1936 to help the Athletic department carry out its various activities. The members' services include taking tickets at football and basketball games, ushering at basketball games, parking cars, serving Bloom players, and escorting visiting teams. Waste paper was collected to raise money to attend the Chicago Track Relays. Lou Budreau, manager of the Cleveland Indians, gave a talk at one of the meetings. The Managers Club is one of Bloom's most active service organizations.

KNEELING—Charles Sanfrentello, John Ziccardi, Eugene Doyle.
FIRST ROW—Charles Marthaler, Philip Nelson, Sidney Hills, Mike Bruno, Joe Teiri, Kalembo, Willis Lloyd, Ted Spyra.
SECOND ROW—Olindo Damiani, Sirovski, Dwane Smith, Joe Voltattorni, Jurgenson, S. Wilcznski, Milton Schmelzer, Ed Thuman, John Foushi, Donald Carlson.
THIRD ROW—Albert Sylvester, Bernard Givrtzman, John Waldel, Henry Duensing, Louis Rausei, Christ Hranos, Mr. Zacher, Steve Kolesa, Ed Toll, Ronald Jessen.

BOYS ADVANCED BOWLING CLUB

This club, with Mr. Clarence Zacher leading the way, met at the Bowl-Aire every Thursday night. There are two divisions of bowlers embodied in this club—a group of eight advanced bowlers who have an average of 130 or better, and a group of four novices who have not yet reached this goal. They hope to organize a South Suburban League of bowling teams to promote inter-school competition.

TEN HIGH BOWLERS

SEATED—Willis Lloyd, Charles Sanfratello, Milton Schmelzer, Edward Thuman, Ronald Jessen.
STANDING—John Foushi, Louis Rousai, Mr. Zacher, Edward Tall, Steve Katesa, Ted Spyra.

FIRST ROW—John Niemczak, Leon Kasper, Joseph Formentini, Floyd Adams, Donald Sedik, Joe LoCascio, Sheldon Cohn, Sammy Cohn, Dominic Traiani.

BOYS BEGINNING BOWLING CLUB

SEATED—Sue Trotter, Shirley Davis, Barbara George, Fern Voits—Secretary, Marilyn Carroll, Gertrude Mulder, Shirley Myers—President, Florence Montella, Gayle Martin, Phyllis Wasik—Treasurer, Sarah Pagoria—Vice-president.

STANDING—Sylvia Folta, Mary Jane Crabtree, Eleanor Harecny, Marilyn Martin, Ada Damiani, Elaine Voit, Marjorie Shepard, Helen Ricchiuto, Miss Veazey, Shirley Marthaler, Helen Rotondi, Eileen Wagner, Frances Seiter, Arlene Keene, June Heinz, Dorothy Welk, Jeanette Zajac, Irene Cialkowski.

GIRLS BEGINNING BOWLING CLUB

This organization, with the instruction of Miss Leila Veazey, has become one of the top bowling clubs of Bloom. Gutter balls and splits soon became spares and strikes. Twenty girls, who were far from beginners at the end of the year, entered the G. A. A. bowling contest, and did very well. Quite a few of these will graduate into the Advanced Bowling Club next year, and will give the older bowlers some stiff competition.

The club met every Monday at 4:00 P. M. at the Bowl-aire.

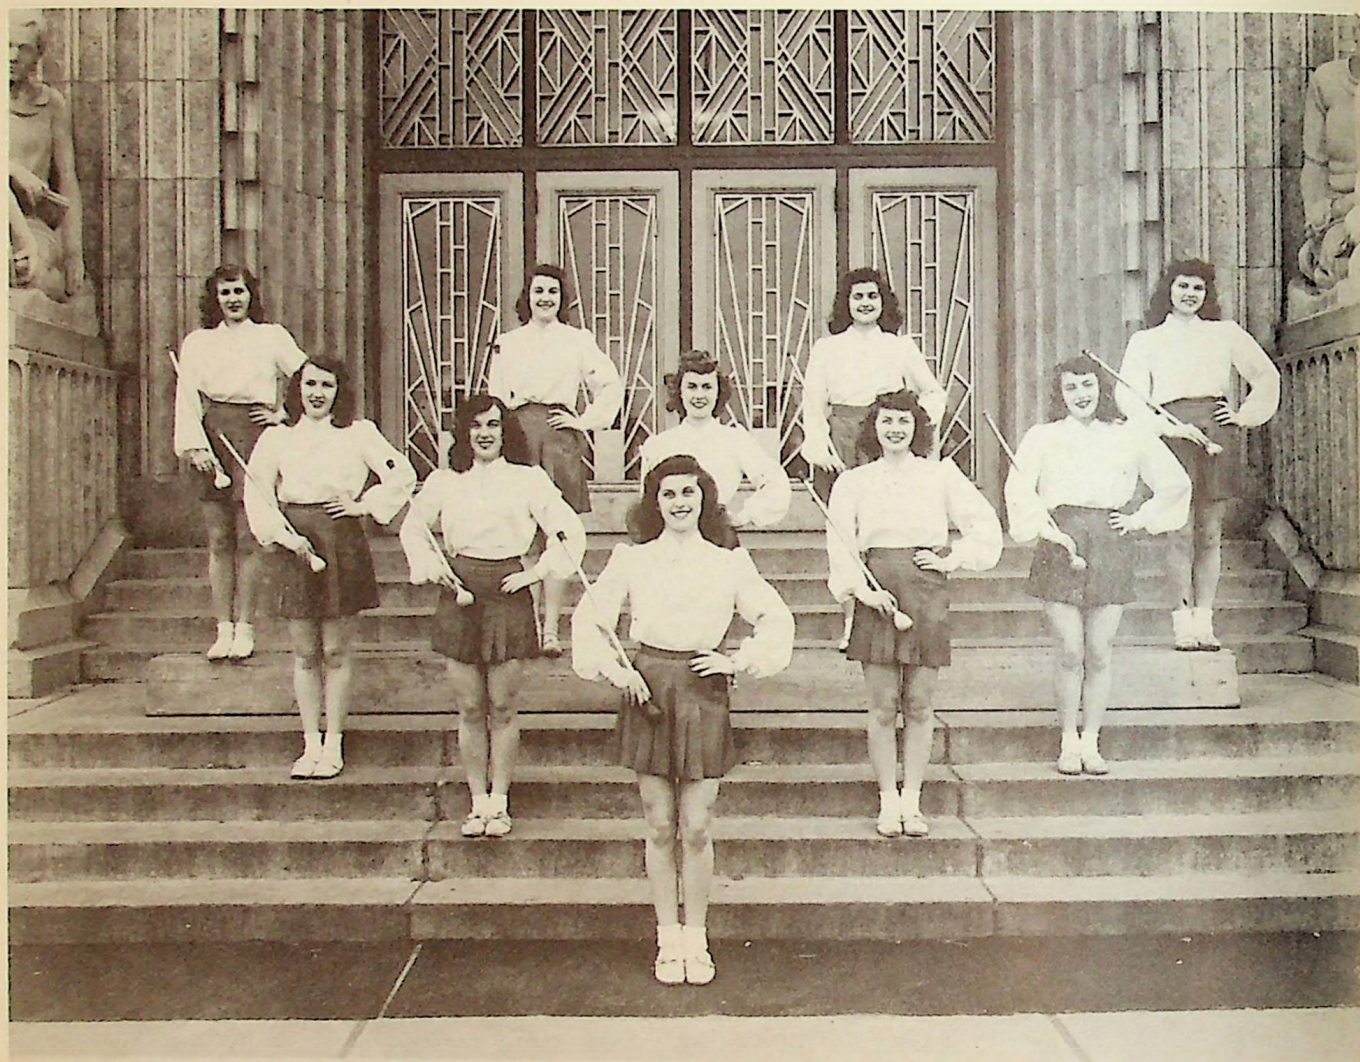

GIRLS ADVANCED BOWLING

The members of this club took part in an all-state G.A.A. bowling tournament in January. First place was taken by the club in a similar tournament a year ago. Awards were given at the end of the year for the highest individual average, and for the highest team average. Colleen Austgen, Joan Engelhardt, Jeanette Johnson, and Gloria Green were some of the club's best bowlers. The members of the club are indebted to Miss Fredrickson for giving fine leadership and whole-hearted support.

SEATED—Bette Hendron, Betty Brooke, Elaine Multog, Ernestine Wilkening, Imogene Layman, Gloria Green, Phyllis Gansen—vice-president, Mildred Saba, Jeanette Johnson, Shirlee Stein.
STANDING—Jean Reid, Bernice Umland—treasurer, Ellen Anne Weidemann, Miss Fredrickson, June Marie Mazonas—president, Joan Engelhardt, Nina Soldano, Delores Gumas, Mildred Wattier, Pat Eklund, Victoria Meskauskas, Colleen Austgen, Violet Christopher—secretary.

RED MAJORETTES

THIRD ROW—Gloria Hansen, Sue Trotter, Eleanor Horecny, Dolores Gardner.

Ten snappy girls in red and white, with whirling batons and light feet . . . our senior group of majorettes . . . performed with the band during the halves of football and basketball games. At the Bloom-Calumet City basketball game, February 16, Commander Andrew Wilson, aged eighty, of Glenwood, considered the oldest man enlisted in the Merchant Marine of World War II, was honored between halves by the Bloom Band and twenty-five majorettes. Five former students represented five branches of the service. These majorettes also entertained at the Regional Basketball Tournament at Joliet on February 27. They presented swift routines with their batons, intricate formations, and peppy marching.

RAINBOW MAJORETTES

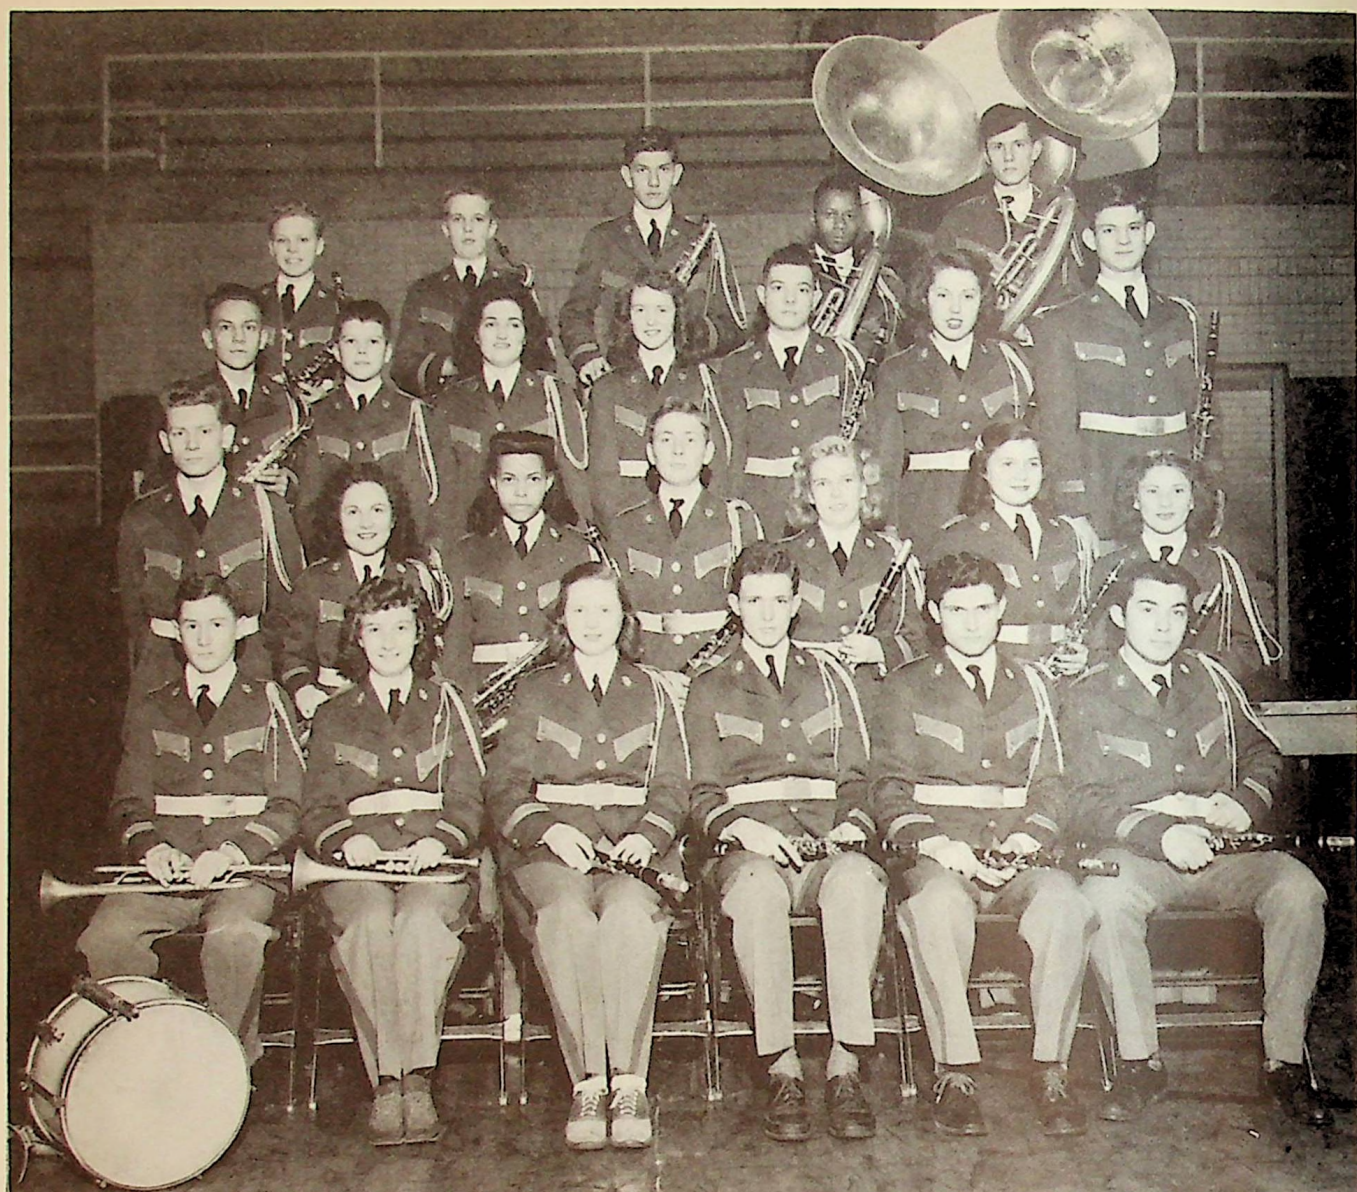

The Rainbow Girls, junior majorettes, are chiefly Sophomore girls. The name originated from their costumes of pastel blouses and white shorts. They twirled with the senior group of majorettes at all of the performances. One of their outstanding performances was the football game in which they presented the flags of twenty-five allied nations. We are looking forward to this group developing into one of the best in years.

FIRST ROW—Lois Olson.

SECOND ROW—Peggy Carter, Ernestine Wilkening, Elizabeth Munson, Margaret Cull, Mildred Sabo, Marian Leinen.

THIRD ROW—Patricia Opie, Anita Petrongelli, Theodora Shugar, Vivian Sher.

FIRST ROW—Burton Collins, Joan Cramer, Jean Sedik, John Fremouw, John DeRosa, Phillip Apponi.
 SECOND ROW—Vincent Pacula, Marilyn Goodman, Katherine Gavin, Donald Blankenberger, Geraldine Jurgenson, Phyllis Coppotelli, Helen Kuerston.

BAND

Joan Engelhardt

"Strike up the band," at Bloom T. H. S.! The ability of the band to march in military formation was displayed at the football games. The semi-annual concert assembly, held in the fall, proved to be among the top ranking assemblies of the year.

Under the leadership of Mr. C. G. Crumb, the band presented the annual concert at Washington School, proving to the community the ability to play as well as march. In May the band concluded a successful season by giving a popular music concert for an assembly.

Blue Majorettes

FIRST ROW—Joyce Meade, Betty Sims, Maralyne Pennington, Richard Beeson, Wayne Welk, Willis Lloyd.
SECOND ROW—Elwood Willey, Kenneth Lindberg, Vera Sanders, Chester Weber, Donald Zuelke, Robert Mehlenbacher.
THIRD ROW—Jack McEldowney, Joan Engelhardt, Susan Schinke, Walter Demit, Marie Siegrist, Robert Stein, Edward Cepela.

The Color Guard

With the close of the season also came the final performance of Vincent Pacula, president of the band, who has served four years. "Red" was assistant student director in addition to being drum major and field director.

Joanne Engelhardt, first-chair snare-drummer, acted as student director during her four years in the Bloom Band, and has rendered outstanding service to this organization. She has directed several numbers in the many popular and classical concerts.

Vincent Pacula

FIRST ROW—Vincent Ranieri, Mae Ella Fox, Elsie Lockeman, Nedo Uliassi.
 SECOND ROW—Angelo Frascarelli, Barbara Buchtel, Dorothy Mayhew, Nancy Cramer.
 THIRD ROW—Marilyn Scogin, Edan Meyer, Oswald Pionti, Gene Noel, Joan Englehardt.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra made its first appearance of the season at the Christmas assembly. Other appearances included the annual Spring Concert given in conjunction with the Choir and Girls Glee Club, assemblies, Class Day, Baccalaureate, and Commencement exercises.

FIRST ROW—Caryl Jean Porter, Warren Westphal, Edo Uliassi.
 SECOND ROW—Philip Apponi, Betty Sims, Joyce Meade, Louis Patrick, Ronald Nemes.
 THIRD ROW—John Fremouw, Kenneth Lindberg, Kenneth Kraft, Carol Vanderwalker, Audrey Gasior.
 FOURTH ROW—Elwood Willey, Willis Lloyd, Wayne Welk.
 STANDING—Miss Florence Dangremond, Director.

ORCHESTRA

Smaller ensembles and soloists from the orchestra have played for various organizations in Chicago Heights, as well as for the Bloom P. T. A. and the Senior Class play.

One of the orchestra's aims has been to become acquainted with a larger repertoire of classic, romantic, and modern music.

FIRST ROW—Betty Michael, Betty Haake, Eleanor Horecny, Eleanor Malizia, Marjorie Wickstrom, Joan Lindberg, Frances Piacenti, Velma Granno, Marilyn Bloom, Dolores Ziems, Patricia Nagle, Helen Mayhew.
 SECOND ROW—Margaret Showalter, Blythe McCradie, Nina Kappmeyer, Gloria Hansen, Elizabeth Lawing, Violet Piunti, Jayne Miller, Mildred Koester, Ruby George, Eleanor Grutzius.
 THIRD ROW—Lorraine Long, Ann Marias, Albert Taffoni, Ernest Steers, Robert Nordtmeier, Robert Reynolds, Louis Cameli, Lola Young, Ellen Ann Weidemann, Lois Kopp, Gladys Brindle.

CHOIR

The A Cappella Choir this year was forty-five strong, smaller than last year's group, but the best voices in the school. This group, in conjunction with the Girls Glee Club, gave a Christmas assembly and another assembly in March. The choir sang for the District Rotary Club meeting in October, and for the Talk of the Hour in December. They took part in the Minstrel show given by the Senior Class, gave a Spring Concert in May, and participated in the graduation exercises.

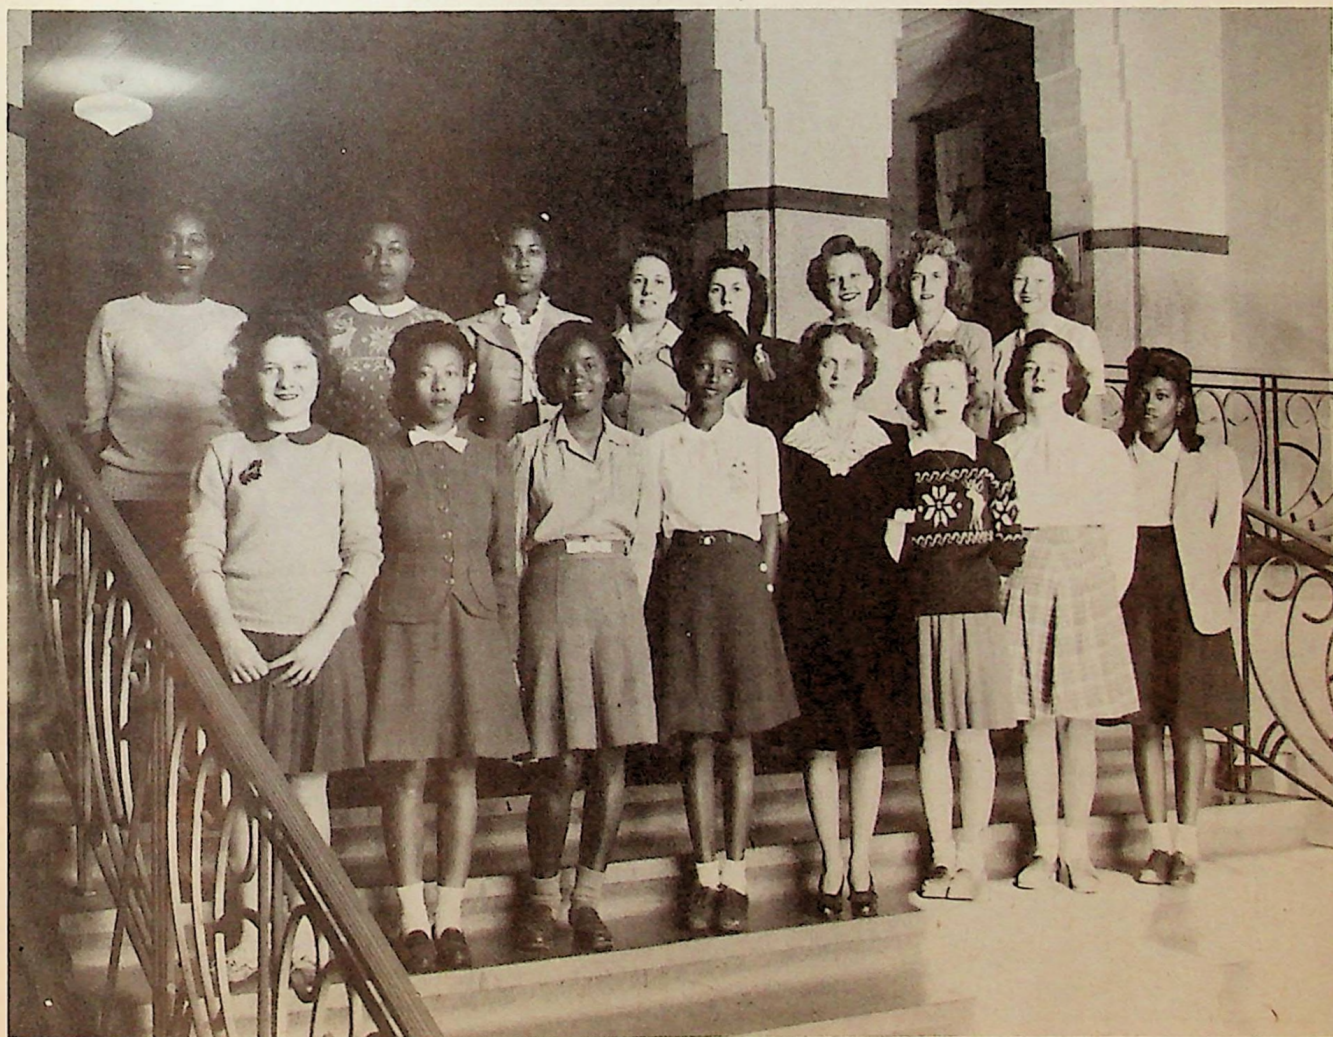

Roger Lange served as president of the group; Albert Taffoni, vice-president; Ann Marias, treasurer; and Vema Granno, secretary.

Having learned the basic principles of singing in its Freshman year, this group received training in advanced choral direction. From this group, only those who show good discipline are advanced to the Girls Glee Club. Much thought is given to the character of a song, the phrasing, and the interpretation. Here music is taught to be an ideal companion if properly handled.

ADVANCED CHORUS

FIRST ROW—Genevieve Nicolas, Dora Garnett, Annie Evans, Vadie Henderson, Miss Collins, Frances Smith, Viola Packard, Mary Monroe.

SECOND ROW—Laverne Watkins, Naomi Wicks, Vallie Davis, Dorothy Heigt, Marilyn Harms, Leatrice Kendall, Gertrude Heath, Loretta Johnson.

GIRLS GLEE CLUB

Having gone through the preliminary training in the Freshman and Advanced choruses, this group of girls was ready for their first public appearance this year. All members have passed a test upon entering and are able to read music at sight. Performances sung during the year were at the P. T. A., the Talk of the Tour Club, at the assembly before the student body, and at the annual Spring Concert.

FIRST ROW—Dorothy Ratkowski, Shirley Prince, Margaret Potts, Alice Rispens, Barbara Gierach, Rita Canali, Norma Callecod, Marlene Ihnen, Virginia Weishaar.

SECOND ROW—Jean Tarquino, Marie Lustig, Shirley Osterberg, Vivian Sher, Viola DeBoer, Bernice Kampe, Mira Stuenkel, Marilyn Lichtenberger, Carolyn Diersen, Catherine Angellotti, Doris Wittel.

THIRD ROW—Betty Schmidt, Jean Lottinville, Clementine Calacci, Myrtle Maurer, Nancy Williams, Dorothy Wieringa, Phyllis Bielskis, Antoinette Buccino, Carolyn Peterson.

FIRST ROW—Miss Collins, Gordon Gibbons, Frank Pagoria, Roy Pfeifer, Donald Dandurand, Donald Moss, Donald Daley, Silvia Piattoni, Robert Daldegan.

BOYS GLEE CLUB

Sight-reading is taught from the very beginning of the course because of the fact that no instruction of this type was given in the grades. The immediate need of more boys in the Choir has encouraged the boys to work hard in getting themselves eligible to occupy a chair in the tenor, baritone, or bass section.

FIRST ROW—Vivian Jordan, Elaine Cameli, Rose Reno, Donna Piacenti, Antima Marks, Gertrude Penoyer, Jean Triba, Ruth Heseman, Gwendolyn Jordan, Hattie Irons.
 SECOND ROW—Karley Baird, Martha Taylor, Elaine Jahns, Osiride Zavarella, Rose Yacono, Flora Paoletti, Joan Evert, Elaine Merritt, Jean Branamon, Rena Giannetti, Katherine Whitacre.
 THIRD ROW—Hilda Bovara, Mable Jamison, Barbara McManimen, Janet McLaughlin, Carole Tanis, Louise Santori, Marilyn Burdick, Helen Bezuk, Betty Ritchie, June Stilts.
 FOURTH ROW—Kathryn Benning, Lorraine Cordes, Violet Brandon, Rita Sheehy, Shirley Schweer, Dolores Rose, Shirley Anderson, Marilyn Lange, Lila Lange, Joy Mae Eisenbrandt, Mariann Frattura.
 FIFTH ROW—Ilo Fisher, Mary Jean Moore, Audrey Schaer, Marilyn Reynolds, Clara Pavone, Shirley Johnson, Peggy Owens, Lena Prisco, Arlene Boughton, Herlene Hills.

FRESHMAN CHORUS

Basic material for the Choirs of 1947 and 1948, this group has worked exceptionally hard in learning how to sight-read music; to correctly enunciate words, to breathe properly, to distinguish between a chest tone and head tone, to follow direction, to determine the mood of a song, and last, but not least, to appreciate the music of our classic composers. In grading each others' diction, direction, tone, and ability to sing second and third harmonies, they learn to perfect these factors in their own work.

CHEERLEADERS

Bloom's morale builders, the cheerleaders, were always ready to spur our teams, both basketball and football, on to victory. They introduced new cheers to the student body, did pep-assemblies, and did much to make for better student participation at sports events of all sorts. The gratitude of the whole school goes to these girls for their enthusiasm and vigor.

Shirley Stein, Elaine Rietz, Gilda Catrone.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

This year's Senior Class produced "Best Foot Forward" on March 14, 15 and 16. Under the able direction of Miss Dorothy Wilson, John Cecil Holm's three-act Broadway comedy became part of Bloom's 1945 academic year.

Can't you just see our boys in those snappy military uniforms before the fall prom at Winsocki Military Academy? If you can, you'll remember Nick Pagoria as Bud Hooper, the cadet with two prom dates! Blythe McCradie supplied the role of the glamorous movie star, Gale Joy. Bob Wald was seen as her Hollywood manager, Jack Haggerty.

The play could not have been produced successfully without the leadership of Joan Anderson as General Chairman, and Mr. Briggs, Miss Veazey, Mr. M'Cann, and Miss Stetler as faculty chairmen.

Coach Sarff

Congratulations to Coach Sarff's fighting heavy-weight squad! With only two returning lettermen, who through ill-fate were injured before the season was completed, the squad ventured into competition with schools having men of far greater experience. With all of these setbacks, the Sarffmen succeeded in sharing the South Suburban League Championship with our worthy rival, Thornton Township High, which had been undefeated before they met Bloom.

The team consisted of: Senne at fullback; Palanca, Piazza and Bouma, halfbacks; Pierendozi and Pheanis alternating at quarterback; DeFrank, Michaelsko, Consorti, and Segala, ends; Martello and Folta, tackles; Bruno, Bove, and Manthey, guards; and Weiler at center.

The first two games, which were with Joliet and Morton, proved defeating blows to the pride of the Bloomites. Especially heart-breaking was the fact that in the Morton game, three touchdowns had to be discredited. But this did not discourage our Trojans in the least — instead it succeeded in strengthening their determination to come out on top.

Their next game was with Argo, a team which had surprised Bloom for the last few years. The Argonauts bowed to a Trojan juggernaut to the tune of 25-14.

Our boys' next victim was the undefeated Mooseheart team, which had a marvelous playing style.

Through the combined efforts of the team, three men . . . Pierendozi, Palanca, and Piazza, were able to score. Bloom lost its only Conference game to Kankakee in their next encounter.

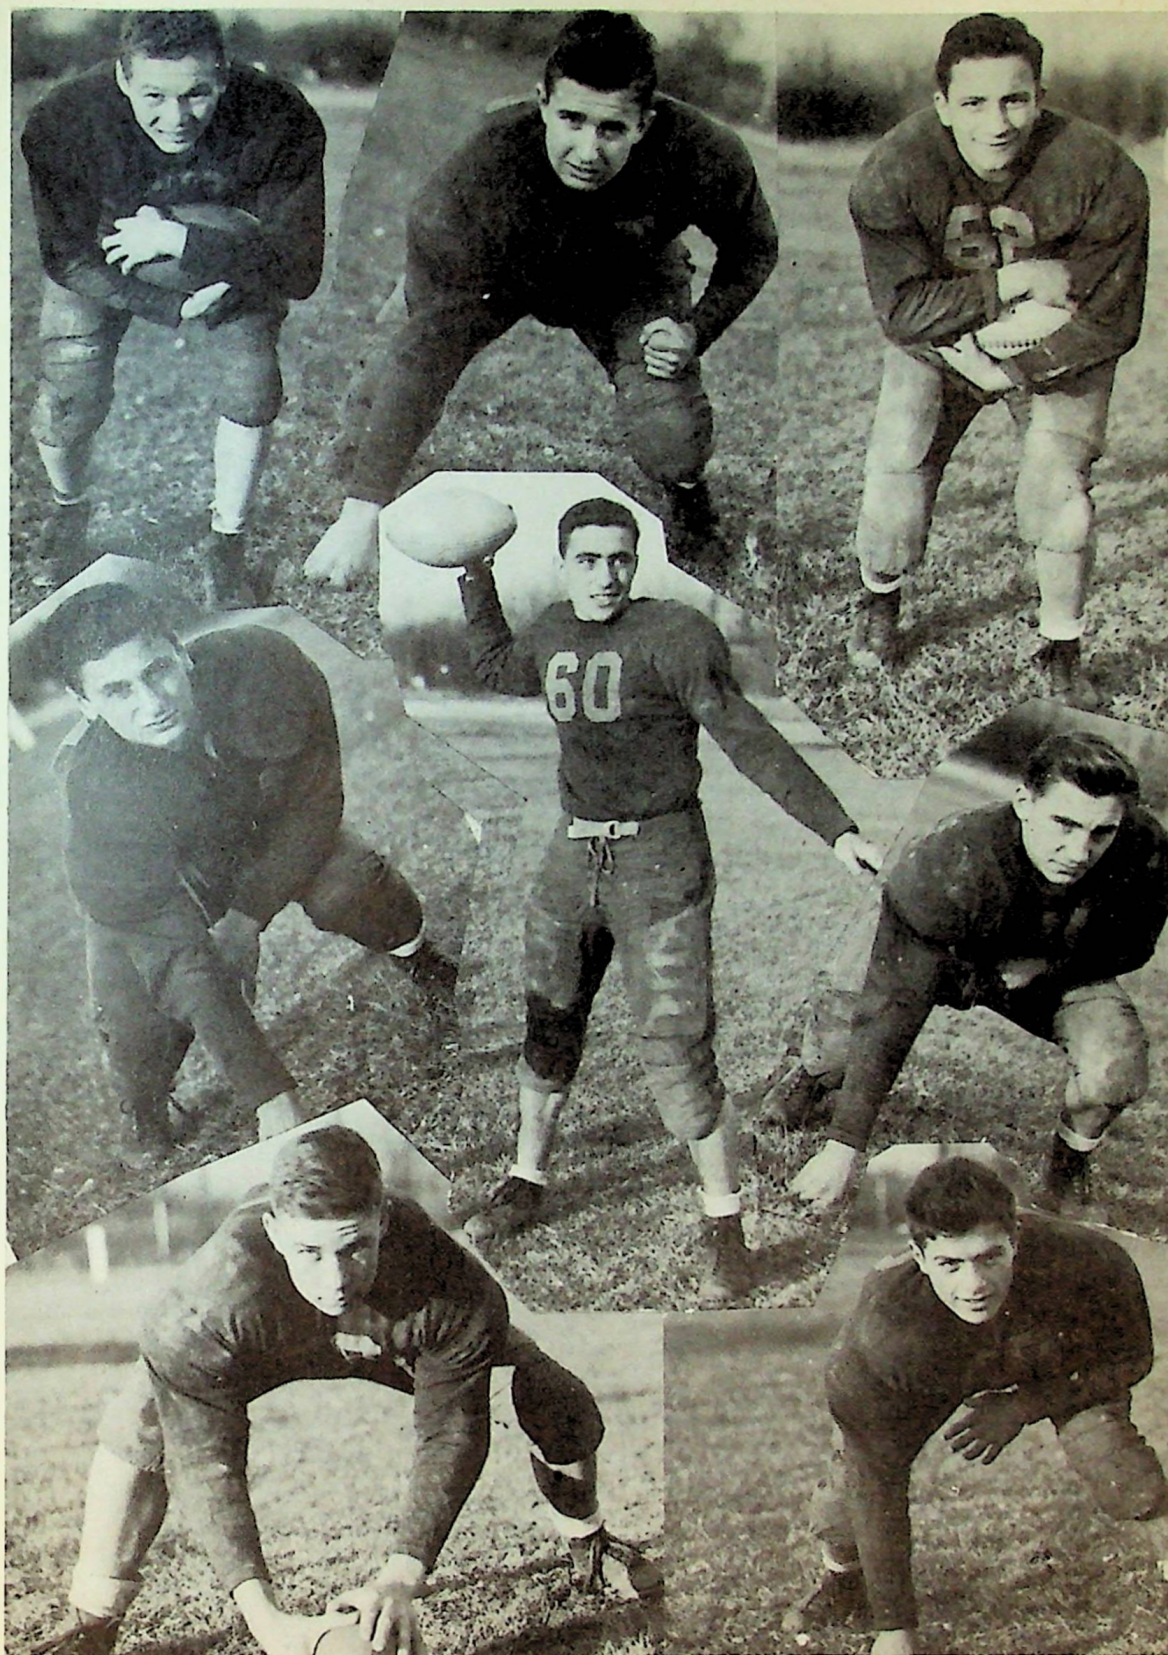

Senne, Piazza, and Palanca were able to roll up a 14-0 victory over Calumet City because of the superb blocking of Bloom's linemen.

The team traveled the next week to Blue Island where they routed the Cardinals by a score of 20-0. Blue Island never had a conversion scored upon them before, but the quick wit of guard Jim Bruno enabled us to accomplish this twice over.

Upon the gridiron which had been made slippery by an afternoon drizzle, Bloom waded through the Harvey mud to a 7-0 victory over Thornton.

Next year, the varsity squad will have ten returning lettermen, who will see to it that Bloom's standard of sportsmanship will be upheld.

 KNEELING—G. Sheely, J. Heiser, Managers.

The Lightweights, under the capable leadership of Coach Frank Buchtel, displayed excellent playing ability and precise teamwork. Although supposedly a Freshman-Sophomore squad, the team consisted entirely of Sophomores. They were: Joe Marias and Ben Damiani, ends; Steve Evans and Nick Pagoria, tackles; Louis Capacasa and Louis Thomas, guards; Louis (Puggy) Pignotti and Don McInnes, centers; Joe Zarante, Ambrose Virgo, and John Zarlengo, halves; Nick DeFrank, quarterback; and Bob Filippi, fullback.

The "little" Trojans' first encounter was with a large and experienced Joliet team. We were defeated by a 6-0 score after a nip and tuck battle. Bloom next played Morton who handed the Frosh-Soph team their second defeat, with a score of 13-0. The next battle proved successful to the Bloomites, winning over Lockport by a margin of 13 points. Incidentally, Nick DeFrank made both touchdowns. In the Morgan Park game, a 19-2 victory for our boys, Zarante, Bilinsky, and Filippi collaborated in scoring the points. DeFrank, Zarante, and Filippi succeeded in chalking up an 18-0 triumph over the Hyde Park team. The following week, Bloom came out on the short end of a 6-0 score after a hard-fought battle with Cal. City. Blue Island, the next team on the schedule, proved too strong, and the Frosh-Soph eleven had to come home on the short end of a 13-6 score. Thornton's junior squad traveled the following Thursday to the Bloom field only to be trounced 21-0 by our hometown boys.

Some of these boys will be used in Coach Sarff's heavyweight line-up next year, so don't be surprised if you hear a lot more of them. They have all shown cooperation and good clean sportsmanship, the materials of which the boys of Bloom High are made.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

The task of teaching our smallest warriors, the Freshmen, the fundamentals of football is given to Coach E. R. Nelson. The boys came in green from the many grammar schools in the area. Most of them have never used regulation equipment and must be taught how to wear and use it.

This scrapping bunch of boys finished the season with a .500 percentage. They set back Morgan Park Military Academy twice by scores of 24-0, and 30-7. Blue Island dealt them both defeats. The team was limited to four games by the transportation problem.

The vanguard of the team consisted of Bob Lueder and Bill Sweeney at the ends, Emil Felicetti and Monte Ray Heckman at the tackles, Tony Merli and Allen Johnson at the guards, and John Bilinski at center.

In the backfield Gene Mruk handled the fullback position very well. Henry Baron and Chuck Panici alternated at quarterback. Dick McCollum and Albert "Fooko" Hlavack ran from the fullback positions. We expect to hear more from these boys in the next few years.

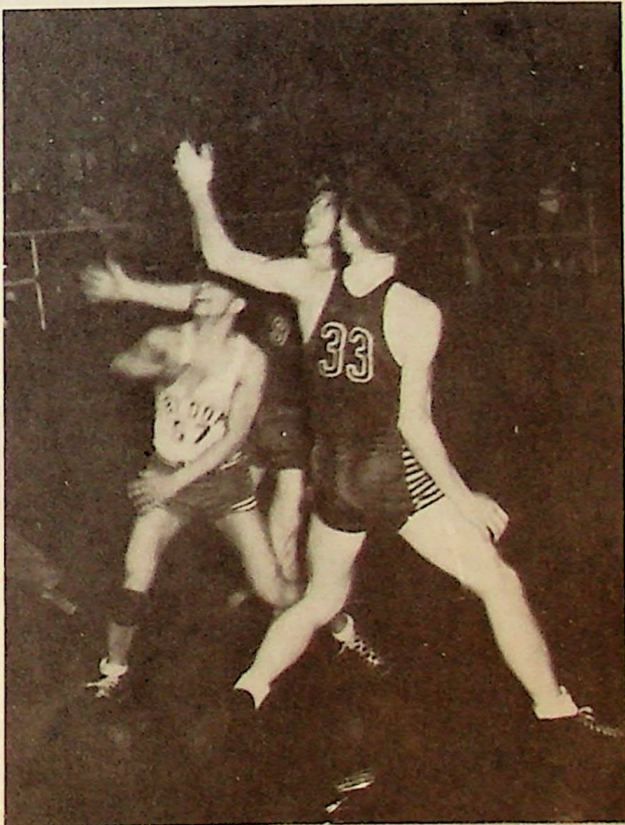

Fighting for it.

Schlemmer up!

I'll betcha we won!

This has to score!

KNEELING—M. Fisk, J. Baird, J. Weiler, B. Bouma, A. Palanca, S. Piazza.

Bloom had a fairly bad basketball season this year, winning six and losing ten. We lost nine and came out on top in three of the South Suburban League games. The main cause of our defeats was the lack of height. In every game our boys were towered over by the opposing team, enabling the taller boys to get the rebounds. Another fact that hindered us was the fact that our boys were green, as Bloom had only two returning lettermen, Sam Piazza and Arnold Palanca.

The Varsity five started the season with two defeats, . . . to Kankakee and Hyde Park. They went on to win three in a row from Lockport, Thornton, and Fenger, respectively. However, they next experienced a series of defeats. Calumet City, Blue Island, Kankakee, and Lockport, each in turn, handed Bloom the bad news. The next two opponents on the list were Joliet and Thornton. We won both games, and, after all is said and done, we can proudly say that we defeated Thornton in both meetings! Argo next chalked up their second win over our boys when we lost to them, 42-35. Our boys were reconciled the next day when they defeated South Shore, who was leading the Southern Chicago league at that time. The season ended the same way it began, with two defeats, one to Calumet City and one to Blue Island.

The loss of forward Carlo Pierandozzi, sharpshooter and backbone of the team, was felt greatly when he graduated at mid-season. The remaining players on the team were: forwards—Arnold Palanca, Mark Fisk, Jim Baird, and Bill Rush; guards—Sam Piazza, Jim Weiler, Jack Pheanis, Howard Smith, Frank Schrohe, Bob Simonetti, and Vincent Pacula; centers—Milton Schlemmer, Bill Bouma, and Roland Russell.

FRESH-SOPH BASKETBALL

The Bloom 'lights', under the supervision of Coach Buchtel, had better luck than their older class-mates. They finished the season with eight wins and six losses. At the beginning of the season, the boys showed great promise. They were undefeated in their first five play-offs, but they just couldn't keep up the pace. Calumet City was the team which fed our Fresh-Sophs defeat for the first time, and Blue Island also offered the same menu in the next week's encounter. This, however, only succeeded in staggering the little Trojans a bit for they handed Kankakee its second defeat the following week. Coach Buchtel's boys had to bow to Lockport and Joliet successively in the next two games, but they came back to win from both Thornton and Argo. The Fresh-Sophs can also be proud to have beaten Thornton twice in one season. Calumet City and Blue Island still hadn't changed their menus so the Bloom boys had to taste defeat once again in the last two games of the year.

The "junior" squad consisted of Louis Pignotti, forward; Nick DeFrank, forward; Allen Davis, center; John Zarlengo, guard; Lowell Hinze, guard; Gene Mruk, guard; Dick Harms, center, Bill Schramm, forward and Peter Coppa, forward. Albert Capacasa, Bob Simonetti, and Roland Russell were the boys transferred over to the Varsity squad at the beginning of the second semester.

SENIOR TRACK 1944

The winged men of the cinder path captured the Kankakee District Meet for the fourth consecutive time! This is one of the few teams in the state to take four district meets in a row. In the South Suburban meet here, the Nelsonmen had to take second to Blue Island.

The Oak Park Relays was the first meet of the season. Louis Irons successfully defended his high jump record . . . clearing the bar at 6 feet 1 inch. The relay team, consisting of Bunker, Zaranti, Irons, and Schwoeffermann, ran seventh. At the State Meet at Champaign, Bob Schwoeffermann broke the Bloom 440 record by running the distance in 52.7; Chuck Bunker specialized in the 100 yard dash and the pole vault; John Zaranti ran the 220 and the 440; and Bill Bouma ran the hurdles and the 220.

The flying Clouds of Thornton fell before the charging Trojans in the annual duel for the Hellfried Cup. Louis Irons clinched the meet when he soared over the bar at six feet. The Bloom relay team, of Zaranti, Schwoeffermann, Bunker, and Bouma, showed the Lipemen their heels. This same relay team broke a Bloom record at Champaign by running the 880 in 1:34.6.

JUNIOR TRACK 1944

The Junior trackmen did not fare as well as the Seniors. The little speedsters placed second in the South Suburban meet behind Thornton. The squad was led by Hermie Santucci and Bobby Bove, who together scored 120 points.

"Corky" Schrohe and Bobby Bove pinned down the 50 yard shield together, running it in 6.1 seconds. Hermie Santucci ran the 100 yard dash in 11.2 seconds, and the 220 yard dash in 24 seconds. He also put the shot, tossing it 45 feet 3 inches. Bobby Bove came within inches of breaking the South Suburban discus record by his toss of 139 feet 6 inches, and also ran the hurdles in 14 seconds. Paul Godowic ran the 660 in 1 minute 34 seconds. He was chased all season by Jack Schmeckebier, Bob Scheid, and Willard Larcher. Mark Fisk cleared the vault bar at 8 feet 6 inches. Ted Belinski sprang 18 feet 4 inches to lead the broad jumpers.

The relay team was one of the best in recent years. The team of Santucci, Bove, Schrohe, and Belinski ran the 440 yards in 49 seconds. These boys will be welcomed into the Senior division next year.

BASEBALL 1944

Bloom's 1944 baseball squad was one that will be remembered for many years to come, for they chalked up a record that will be difficult to excell. They were South Suburban Champions, District Tourney Champions, Sectional Tourney Champions, and State Tourney competitors!

In all of their games they displayed remarkable cooperation and "big league" teamwork. In their first six battles, the Trojans were victorious. In the seventh, with Lockport, the breaks of the game were against them, and they came out on the short end of a 2-1 score.

Thornton's winning streak of twenty-two in a row was put to an end by Bloom's performance. Our team won every game after the Lockport incident and participated in the contest for the State Championship, but had to bow in defeat to Central Catholic High.

The Trojan team consisted of captain Dan

Dristy, first baseman deluxe; pitcher Bob Schwoeffermann noted for his modest ways; John Zaranti, a rough and tough right fielder; pitcher Ed Zinker, famous for his kidding; Bill Jahnke, a fighting catcher; Steve Kotesa, a card with his tricky pitching; Wilbur Cylke, a curve-ball naturalist; center fielder Hubert Skonecke, speedster on base; shortstop Don Anderson, with his professional style; second baseman Armondo Pignotti, an expert in the double play; Bob Simonetti, a "natural" third baseman and consistent hitter; Dick "Hub Dub" Hibbs, a consistant switchhitter, who played left field; Ben Compagnoni, catcher; Bill Nosal, utility outfielder; and Arnold Planca, third baseman, who kept up the spirit of the team.

Other squad members were Ambrose Virgo, infield; Jerome Baron, outfield; John Zarlengo, outfield; Vincent Pacula, outfield; and Joe Voltattorni, pitcher.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

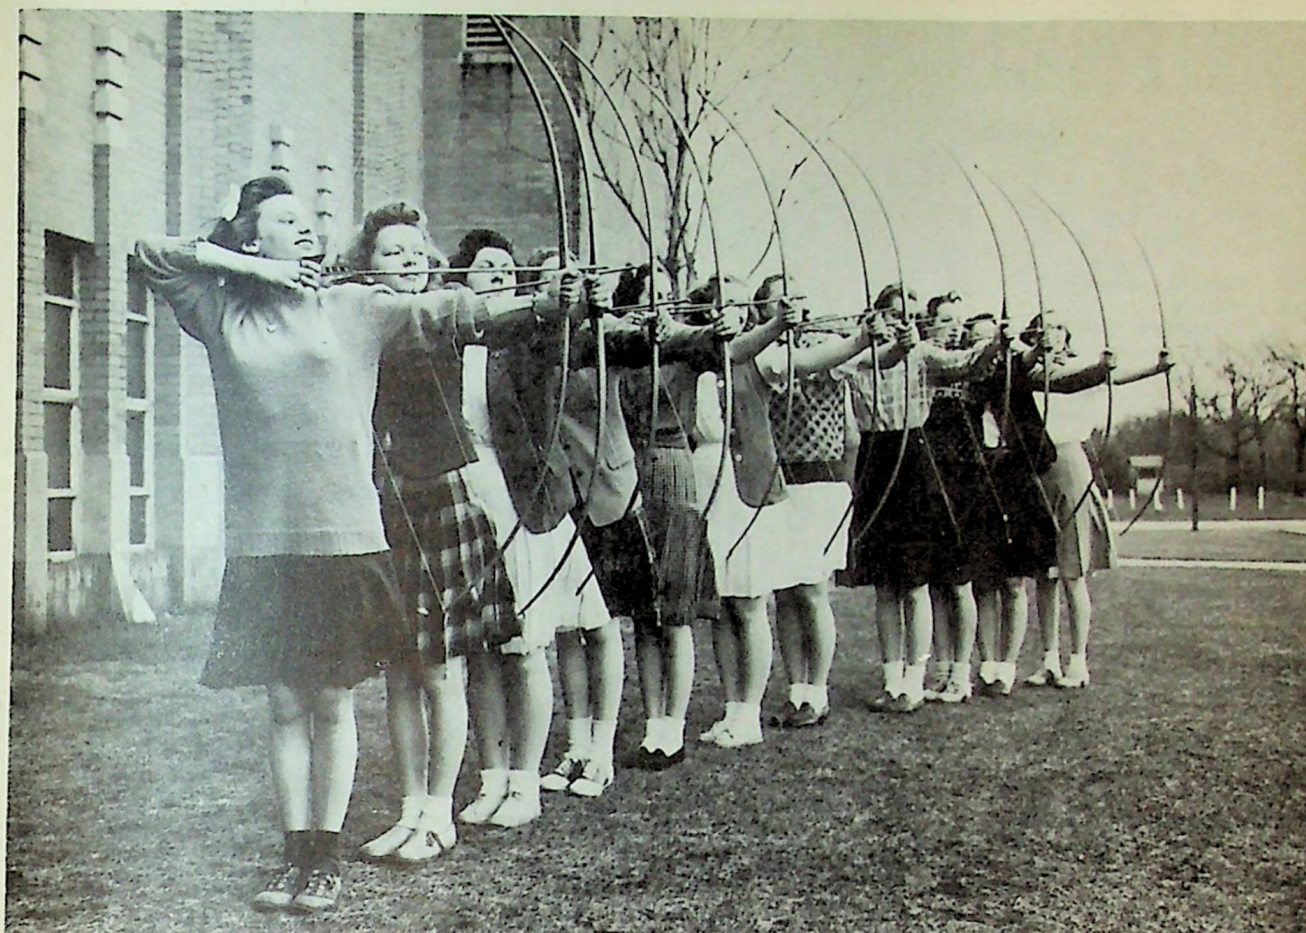

Due to the war, many girls were unable to spend as much time out of school on special activities, so many of these activities were worked into the gym classes. This year there have been class tournaments in volleyball, basketball, badminton, and table tennis. The Juniors took first place in the volleyball tournament, with the Seniors ranking second, and the Sophomores third. The Freshmen had a special tournament, and also played Washington School.

The regular class work included marching and folk dancing to develop a sense of rhythm.

On the balmy fall days archery was one of the favorite sports. When the winter winds began to blow, the girls went inside for calisthenics, basketball, volleyball, table tennis, bowling practice, and badminton. (You should see the panting girls chasing furiously after the "birdie"!) With the arrival of spring, the energetic gals dashed out for spirited baseball games.

All of these activities help make American women what they are—outstanding in beauty and sportsmanship.

Imogene Layman, Mildred Heideman, Shirley Prince, Joanne Cornet, Sara Berolzheimer, Myrtis Maurer, Jean Sedik, Gladys Brindle, Shirley Stein, Marge Shimke, and Shirley Smith.

ARCHERY

All girls in the physical education classes are qualified to learn the "dangerous" art of archery. Almost any nice afternoon in the spring and fall, the girls may be seen exhibiting their skill on the southern edge of the athletic field.

When the weather does not permit outdoor participation in this "body-building" sport, the girls remain in the building and practice in the gym.

At the beginning of the school year, a goon gal — strictly off the beam, decides to take archery. She comes out every night it is possible and works diligently. Lo and behold, at the end of the year, our novice turns out to be a pipparoo with everything it takes, body coordination, poise, and a few other little incidentals.
